

Trainers and Assessors – Professional Development Workshop

MORE Ways to Make Training Active! Part Two!

You asked for more of this workshop so here is PART TWO!

Innovation and Business Skills Australia (IBSA) and APCOT are back with the second in the series of '101 Ways to Make Training Active'; a professional development program for trainers and assessors.

Didn't make it to the first workshop? That's okay, you can attend these workshops in any order you like! These workshops will build your group facilitation skills and enliven your training sessions no matter what industry or subject matter you deliver!

This one day workshop will provide you with specific suggestions on how to organise and conduct lively sessions that can be used to teach or train any subject!

You will experience interactive exercises that you can use straight away in your own training sessions. These simple yet powerful strategies will help you with team building to stimulating discussions to prompting questions (no more empty silences!) to developing skills, inviting feedback and promoting back-on-the-job applications, you'll discover inventive, innovative and proven strategies to make your training sessions unforgettable with measureable outcomes for learners.

Here are just some of the strategies you will sample in this workshop:

- Big Picture Modelling
- Working the Room
- Two Sided Triads
- Scavenger Hunt
- Assessment Search

Be ready for some Serious Fun while working through some Serious Concepts!

Receive a FREE interactive and re-usable portfolio of the strategies and interactive activities covered during the workshop.

The Facilitators

The APCOT Facilitators are all highly skilled, experienced and handpicked by Gabrielle Hartin, CEO and lead facilitator for APCOT. Gabrielle, a global leader in training and assessment has lived and worked on four different continents. Gabrielle founded APCOT when she saw a gap in the market for a high quality, Registered Training Organisation dedicated to the delivery of training and assessment and professional development for trainers and teachers.

The APCOT facilitators will engage and guide you through the discovery of new learning points and new perspectives that you can incorporate into your design and delivery techniques. The APCOT facilitators all have an open mind, a willingness to learn and keep on learning and a desire to support your Continuous Improvement pursuits!

The APCOT TAA04 learning programs and teaching resources have all been developed in-house by APCOT and therefore present a unique learning methodology based on Gabrielle's experiences of working in Learning and Development on four different continents (Australia, Asia, South America and Europe) with people of varying ages, abilities and levels of English literacy.

This need has seen APCOT use its national and international experiences to dedicate itself and focus solely on developing the skills and qualities of high performing trainers and leaders.
